

2025 Lost Dutchman Days Royalty Pageant

Thank you for submitting your application to compete for the 2025 Lost Dutchman Days Royalty! Below you will find a tentative schedule of events for the day along with other pertinent information. Times on the schedule may need to be adjusted based on the number of contestants.

All contestants will be required to compete in horsemanship* including a set pattern, pushing cattle, flag run and presentation run (hot lap). There will be one pattern for Junior Teen competitors and a separate pattern for Senior Teen and Queen competitors. The patterns are below. Horsemanship attire will be rodeo Queen attire.

*There will be a minimum horsemanship score to qualify to hold an LDD Queen title.

You will also be required to complete a private interview with the judges. The private interviews will be held at the Multi – Generational Center which is 2 miles from the rodeo grounds, parking is limited but you can keep your horse at the rodeo grounds. Interviews will be held immediately following horsemanship and just prior to lunch. Interview attire will be jeans and a jacket (professional).

After lunch we will have a short welcome, introduction of contestants and move right into speeches. The Lost Dutchman Days Royalty Pageant does not require leather dresses for speeches but contestants should be dressed in long, formal type queen attire. Speech topic is anything EXCEPT rodeo.

When speeches are complete each contestant will be asked to model as they come up on stage for impromptu questions. Contestants may remain in their speech attire.

This will complete the competition. Winners will be announced as soon as the current royalty's outgoing speeches have concluded, and the judge's scores have been tallied.

Please don't forget each contestant is responsible for bringing 1 silent auction item.
